WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Dear Wesleyan Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

In an era when many tourist destinations are cleverly packaged to draw crowds, travel seldom captures the authentic character and culture of a destination. This is why we are pleased to sponsor Village Life in Burgundy and Provence. Village Life programs have been designed for a unique immersion in the cultural life of a region, bypassing the roads traveled all too often.

Our program features a week-long cruise aboard the deluxe M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE on the Saône and Rhône rivers as they wind their way from Lyon to the Mediterranean coast, passing through the celebrated vineyards of Burgundy and past the marvelous villages of Provence. While most travelers flock to Paris and the oft-visited beaches of the Riviera, you will come to learn France's true culture in the nation's heartland — amid the colored roofs of Burgundy's villages, the gustatory pleasures of Lyonnais cuisine, the pleasant flavors of a Beaujolais, and the rich heritage and verdant farmland of Provence. After touring the wine towns of Burgundy, visit the magnificent medieval churches and monasteries of Cluny, Arles and Avignon before concluding in picturesque Lyon, a city famous across the world for its superb cuisine.

Unpack only once and make yourself at home while cruising to charming wine towns and medieval cities aboard the deluxe M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE, a four-star vessel with the intimate ambience and high level of service of an elegant European hotel. Unlike larger vessels, the M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE is able to dock alongside medieval towns inaccessible to larger vessels. Enjoy a week of fine dining courtesy of the ship's master chefs, with fresh ingredients provisioned each day from the local markets in each port of call.

Throughout the program, Wesleyan University Professor of History Nathanael Greene will offer lectures and discussions about modern France. These will include commentary on French political cultures, key figures and episodes in recent history, France's troubled relationship with America, and fears that traditional rural life is about to disappear.

Professor Greene has been a member of the Wesleyan Faculty since 1963 and is a specialist in modern French history. He has studied in France on Fulbright and Guggenheim Fellowships and has been a study leader on several tours of France sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution. The author of studies in French and European history, Professor Greene recommends that participants prepare for this tour by reading a recent account of French life, such as Richard Bernstein's Fragile Glory, and either Lawrence Wylie's Village in the Vaucluse, a marvelous description of rural society a half-century ago, or a contemporary account by John Merriman, The Stones of Balazuc: A French Village in Time.

With the camaraderie of Wesleyan alumni, parents, and friends, and an exceptional price that includes accommodations, meals and excursions, this is a unique program. This program promises to be very popular, so make your reservation today.

Sincerely,

Linda W. Secord
Director of Alumni Education

SPECIAL GUESTS

We are pleased to have two special guests on this Village Life program — Americans who, through years of residence in France, have unique insights into the life and culture of Burgundy and Provence.

Marcia Hadjimarkos, who will give at concert at Château de Montmelas, studied French literature and piano performance at the University of Iowa, before specializing in the fortepiano at the Paris Conservatory. She is an internationally recognized keyboard specialist with award-winning recordings to her credit, and has been a resident of Burgundy for the last 15 years and a guide at Cluny Abbey since 1989.

Janice Lert, who will lecture on “Arles and the Camargue: the Importance of the River Rhône,” was born in Augusta, Maine, and studied French at Middlebury College before receiving her M.A. in Foreign Language from Fairleigh Dickenson University. She married her husband, a native of Arles, in 1969, and is a certified guide-lecturer honored by the Caisse Nationale des Monuments Historiques.

VILLAGE LIFE: A WAY OF LIFE IN BURGUNDY AND PROVENCE

Village Life in Burgundy and Provence is one in a unique series of Village Life programs designed for inveterate travelers who know the true character of a nation is best found in the provinces, on the backroads, and around the local market squares. Indeed, it offers you a cultural and educational experience like no other. For an exceptionally low fare, Village Life in Burgundy and Provence provides a unique opportunity to experience the charming wine towns and historic cities of Burgundy and Provence. Here, for one full week, you will sip the vintages of Beaune and Beaujolais, discover the history of Cluny, Arles and Avignon, and savor the renowned cuisine of Lyon.

If you have ever wanted to know what life in the French countryside is really like, this is your chance. In addition to tours and excursions to the region's important cities, local villages and historic landmarks led by expert guides and tour leaders, accomplished American guide, Janice Lert, who has lived in Burgundy and Provence for decades, will present a special lecture about the history of the Arles region. You will also attend a private piano concert and wine tasting at the Château de Montmelas to be hosted by the owner whose family has lived at the estate since 1566. And, your superb shipboard chef will introduce you to the secrets of preparing this region's renowned cuisine.

“But nothing can do justice to the light — neither camera nor brush. It has a felicity and eloquence beyond all praise. These skies...are unique to Provence... They seem so freshly minted that the peasant faces you encounter in the Saturday market-place have all the poise and gravity of Roman medallions.”

-- Lawrence Durrell, Provence

The four-star M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE has been specially selected for this program, as it features deluxe accommodations and gourmet cuisine, and is able to dock within close proximity to medieval town centers, inaccessible to larger ships.

Unpack once! This exceptional travel opportunity includes all accommodations, meals and exclusively arranged excursions for an incredibly low price. So, join us and experience a special way of life: Village Life in Burgundy and Provence.

TOURNUS

This beautiful town on the Saône is one of the oldest and most important monastic centers in France, as pilgrims and monks have flocked to St. Philibert's Abbey for more than a thousand years. Built in the 10th century, it is one of earliest and finest examples of Romanesque architecture in Burgundy. Also visit the Musée Greuze, dedicated primarily to the renowned 18th-century painter and Tournus native Jean-Baptiste; the museum also features exhibits on regional art and history.

BEAUNE

Founded in the 5th century B.C., this bustling town has long been the epicenter of Burgundy's legendary wine trade. Beaune is also home of the gorgeous 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu, a quintessential example of Burgundian Renaissance architecture distinguished by its dazzling, multicolored glazed roof tiles. Its rooms provide a fascinating glimpse into life during the 15th century, and it is home of the brilliant The Last Judgment by Rogier van der Weyden, one of the world's greatest Gothic paintings.

MÂCON

The vineyards surrounding Mâcon include the renowned Pouilly-Fuissé region, birthplace of the famous French romantic writer Alphonse de Lamartine.

CLUNY ABBEY

Situated amidst the vineyards of the Pouilly-Fuissé region, Cluny was one of the greatest centers of medieval Christianity. Indeed the immense influence exercised by the Cluniac Order on the religious, intellectual, political and artistic life of the Western World led Pope Urban II to tell its members in 1095, "You are the light of the world." Only a fraction of the 11th-century abbey complex remains, thanks to the Revolutionary upheavals of 1793, yet these beautiful and austere remnants still provide a fascinating glimpse of what was, until the construction of St. Peter's in Rome, the largest Christian basilica in the world.

BEAUJOLAIS

“Le Beaujolais Nouveau est arrivée!” comes the cry each November when the year’s vintage hits the market. Follow lovely vineyard vistas into the Beaujolais des Pierres Dorées — the land of the “golden stones,” where France’s youngest and most festive wines are created. Enjoy a private visit to the historic Château de Montmelas hosted by Madame Blandine de Sonis, whose family has lived in the castle since 1566. The visit will include a piano performance by Marcia Hadjimarkos, a highly regarded American pianist who has lived in Burgundy for 15 years, and a tasting of wines produced at the château, as well as local cheeses and sausages.

BOUCIEU-LE-ROI

In the heart of the Rhône Valley, stands the quaint village of Boucieu-le-Roi. Our visit to this village, famous for its beautiful 18th-century bridge, will include a reception at the convent founded by Father Pierre Vigne, a legendary 18th-century missionary. The reception, hosted by the mayor, will offer a unique opportunity to experience the warm hospitality and quaint charm of a typical French village.

ARLES

Few places on earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to two majestic Roman monuments, the Arena and the Theater, both built in the 1st century B.C. The Arena is the largest constructed in Gaul, and is second only to Rome’s Colosseum in magnificence and grandeur. Arles’ other primary attraction, the 12th-century Cathedral of St-Trôphime, is a fascinating Romanesque basilica with memorably serene cloisters. Arles is also associated with Vincent van Gogh, who lived here between 1888 and 1889; the subject of his famous Night Café is still open on the lively Boulevard des Lices.

Good wine fills man’s heart with joy.

-- Ancient Roman saying

AVIGNON

Throughout the 14th century, Avignon was the center of Western Christendom after Pope Clement V fled the turmoil of Rome in 1309. In the relative safety of Avignon, the next six pontiffs built the city into one of the richest and powerful in Europe, before a schism with Rome in 1379 led to the eventual end of the Avignon Papacy in 1405 and the gradual decline of the city’s power and prestige. The immense Palais des Papes (papal palace), one of the largest château-forts ever built in Europe, is the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age and one of the most famous landmarks in France. Nearby, admire the Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms and enjoy a splendid view of the Rhône River valley. At the river’s edge, visit the remaining four arches of the famous Pont d’Avignon— one of the most beautiful engineering constructions of the Middle Ages.

LYON

In a country obsessed with food, Lyon occupies pride of place; known as the “capital of gastronomy,” it is where all France goes to eat. Deliciously rich Lyonnais cuisine, brightened by a bottle of Beaujolais, is served up at the city’s famed bouchons, neighborhood bistros with an unpretentious, convivial atmosphere. Situated at the confluence of the Rhône and Saône rivers, this hard-working city can be seen in all its Gallic red-roofed glory from the top of Fourvière Hill. Almost 300 Gothic and Renaissance mansions, built from the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry, grace Vieux Lyon.

Lyon’s Cathédrale Saint-Jean and Basilique Fourvière, witnesses to the city’s long and often turbulent history.

M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE

Cruise through Burgundy and Provence aboard the deluxe river ship M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE, whose decor, service, cuisine and comfort create the intimate ambience of an elegant European hotel. Designed to navigate French waterways, the ship hugs the shoreline for close-up views of grapes ripening in vineyards and châteaux clinging to steep clifftops. The ship also docks in the center of each town for convenient exploration on your own.

Your comfortable air-conditioned cabin features picture windows for spectacular river views and a private bathroom with shower. In addition, cabins on the upper deck have full-length French doors that, when open, turn your accommodations into a floating river terrace.

The ship's public rooms are beautifully appointed with a stunning private art collection of original paintings and are furnished in the bright pastels and cherry wood evocative of Provence.

Gastronomy is one of France's hallmarks, a distinction shared by the M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE, where master chefs prepare exquisite international and regional gourmet cuisine enjoyed at one seating. You are always assured of the freshest of everything, as the ship is provisioned from local markets during port calls. The ship offers a wonderful wine list which features the region's finest vintages. After dinner, relax in the intimate lounge or enjoy local entertainment.

The M.V. PRINCESSE DE PROVENCE, built in 1992, also has a hairdresser, library, laundry, gift shop, sun deck with fitness equipment and a qualified doctor on board.
