

Where on Earth Are We Going?

Saturday, November 7, 2009

9 a.m.

Global Environmental Change and Freshwater Resources: Hope for the Best or Change to Prepare for the Worst?

PATRICK L. OSBORNE, PhD

Executive Director

Harris World Ecology Center

University of Missouri – St. Louis

Tishler Hall (Room 150), Exley Science Center

10:15 a.m.

Water in a Changing Climate—The Role of the National Forests in the Water Infrastructure

FRANK H. MCCORMICK, PhD

Program Manager

Air, Water and Aquatic Environments

Rocky Mountain Research Station

Tishler Hall (Room 150), Exley Science Center

4 p.m.

The 17th Annual Dwight Greene Symposium Green the Ghetto and How Much It Won't Cost Us

MAJORA CARTER '88

President and CEO, The Majora Carter Group

Founder, Sustainable South Bronx and River Heroes

Memorial Chapel

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Sponsored by the Robert Schumann Lecture Series in the Environmental Studies Program

For more information, please contact Valerie Marinelli at vmarinelli@wesleyan.edu or (860) 685-3733.

WESLEYAN
UNIVERSITY