

Example of a Spring 2016 budget for DIS Copenhagen with homestay

Budget Worksheet for Programs that do provide room and board

Review the costs of the program carefully and use this worksheet to assist in calculating your budget.

Budget Item	Cost
Wesleyan Tuition (minus program deposit)	$ 23,852.00
International Housing (room and board as billed by the program)	$ 5,850.00
Payable to Wesleyan subtotal:	$ 29,702.00
Deposit	$ 500.00
Optional summer language course or other optional costs
Payable to the program subtotal:	$ 500.00
Vaccines
Visa
Airfare	$ 900.00
Medical Insurance
Additional Food
Local Transportation
Books and Supplies
Miscellaneous Personal Expenses	$ 2,250.00
Additional Expenses subtotal:	$ 3,150.00
Grand Total: $ 33,352.00

Notes:

Payable to Wesleyan – tuition and other program fees, which are billed directly to your Wesleyan student account.

Payable to the program - costs that are paid directly to the program administrator.

Additional Expenses – while not payable to Wesleyan or the program these additional expenses should be included in your personal budget; costs may vary based on individual flights, where you purchase meals that are not included in the program, any personal travel you undertake outside of the program’s structured activities, and other personal costs such as passport fees, gifts, phone charges, etc.