

EARTH MONTH 2014

Toward open source seeds: Free as in speech, not as in beer

Thursday, April 3, 6:15 PM
PAC 001

Keynote speaker Jack Kloppenburg will speak on the Open Source Seed Initiative. Free and open to the public.

Sustainability Careers Panel

Tuesday, April 8, 4:15 PM
Allbritton 004

Join a panel discussion on sustainability careers with Eban Goodstein P'10, Director of the Bard Center for Environmental Policy, Jiff Martin from UConn Extension, and Prof. of Earth Science Joop VAREKAMP.

Climate Justice Conference of Solutions

Saturday, April 12, 8:30 AM – 5 PM
Exley Science Center 150

Hear and discuss climate change solutions with keynote speaker David Foster, panel discussions, and workshops.

Brian Stewart's 7th Annual Earth Week Rant: The Yin and Yang of Sustainability

Thursday, April 24, 4:30 – 6 PM
Exley Science Center 58

Prof. Stewart will explore the forces that make it so hard to come to an agreement about making society more sustainable.

Mama Earth Fest

Saturday, April 26, 1 – 4 PM
West College Courtyard

Join student feminist and environmental groups for music, games, art, and snacks in the WestCo courtyard to celebrate Mama Earth.

Victoria Mamas Film Screening

Wednesday, April 30, 12 – 1 PM
Downey 113

This short documentary spends time with three women and their families living in Tanzania on the shores of Lake Victoria.

For more details and a full list of campus and community events, visit
<http://www.wesleyan.edu/sustainability/engagement-and-events/earth-month-2014.html>