

Wesley Career

222 Church Street " Box 0000 " Middletown CT 06459 " (860) 685-2180 " wcareer@wesleyan.edu

Education

Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT

Fall 1997 Spring 2001

Bachelor of Arts
Major: Economics.
GPA: 3.71/4.00.

Honors

- Freeman Asian Scholarship 4-year merit-based full scholarship, awarded annually to 2 students from each of 10 countries.
- Plukas Prize Awarded to teaching apprentices with commendable devotion in executing their pedagogical responsibilities.
- Johnston Prize Awarded to freshmen/sophomores with exceptional potential in Physics.
- ASEAN Scholarship 4-year merit-based full scholarship awarded to 18 exceptional students from Indonesia in 1993 to further their education at Singapore's most prestigious high schools.
- Distinction Award Australian Mathematics Competition (1994 and 1995), Australian Chemistry Quiz (1994).

Work Experience

Research Assistant, Economics Department, Wesleyan University

Summer 2000 Spring 2001

- Reviewed economics literature extensively to compile relevant statistical methodologies and selected appropriate economic indicators to resolve price puzzle and liquidity puzzle in the G7 (minus the U.S.) countries.
- Collected and analyzed data for a structural vector autoregression analysis on the effect of monetary policy in the U.S.
- Ran SVAR simulations, using Matlab, on the U.S. economic variables to complete a paper scheduled for journal publication.

Head Laboratory Technician, Information Technology and Services, Wesleyan University

Fall 2000 Spring 2001

- Created computer image using Norton Ghost software and scheduled computer imaging to maintain lab's usability.
- Repaired broken computers (PCs and Macintosh).
- Instructed assistant technicians and general lab consultants on hardware, software and printing troubleshooting.

Teaching Apprentice, Economics and Mathematics Departments, Wesleyan University

Fall 2000 Spring 2001

- Conducted weekly discussion groups on Macroeconomic Analysis and Introductory Calculus.
- Held Microsoft Excel and EViews, an econometric software, sessions to equip students with economic analysis tools.

Senior Helpdesk Consultant, Information Technology and Services, Wesleyan University

Spring 1998 Spring 2001

- Provided TCP/IP, LAN, Novell Netware, Win9x/ME/2K, and mail server support for the Wesleyan community, including over-the-phone assistance.
- Tested newly-released technology and provided feedback prior to its adoption campus-wide.
- Prepared and maintained IT manuals and trained new IT support consultants.

Leadership Experience

Founder/Captain, Typhoon (Intramural Soccer Team), Wesleyan University

Fall 1997 Spring 2001

- Organized weekly practice sessions to improve team cohesion.
- Canvassed for funds from college administrator to purchase gear and equipment.
- Spearheaded the team to championship in Fall 1998 and Spring 2000, runners up in Fall 1997/99 and Spring 1998.

Member, International Students Association (Pangea), Wesleyan University

Fall 1997 Spring 2001

- Prepared Indonesian cuisines and staged a pencak silat performance to promote the Indonesian culture.
- Managed the acoustics of cultural fairs and implemented the use of MP3s as the replacement for CDs.

Skills/Interests

Computer: Proficient in PC hardware, Windows (all versions), UNIX, Mac OS, MS Office, Adobe and Macromedia products, and EViews and USEcon. Familiar with Matlab, C++, Perl, Java, Shell Scripting, Turbo Pascal. CCNA candidate.

Languages: Fluent in English and Bahasa Indonesia. Conversant in Mandarin and Hokkien.

Interests: Athletics, badminton, sepak takraw, soccer, squash, tennis, volleyball, and traveling.