

EDUCATION

Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT

May 2001

Bachelor of Arts; Major: Economics; GPA: 3.6/4.0.

Freeman Asian Scholar-Selected for a highly competitive four-year full scholarship awarded annually to two students from each of ten Asian countries for outstanding scholastic and leadership ability.Horace White, Jr. Prize-Awarded annually to students for excellence in Economics.EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Anderson Consulting, Intern, Malaysia

Summer 2000

Member of VTrade, a development team currently implementing an alternative financial settlement facility for e-commerce, to enable VISA member banks to play a more efficient role in international trade negotiations.

* Created the design, layout and contents of website static pages.

* Researched and compiled data comparing the Asian economies as well as data comparing VTrade and its competitors.

* Communicated with pilot banks to ensure that information was received and that deadlines were met.

* Edited Rules and Terms Sheets to ensure that the proposed rules were compliant with VISA regulations and Singapore jurisdiction.

American International Group, Intern, Malaysia

Summer 1999

Assisted portfolio analysts and regional actuaries in preparing monthly and quarterly reports; collected data and compiled sections of the year 2000 budget; assisted the underwriting team in endorsing insurance policies.

ITS Helpdesk, Senior Consultant, Wesleyan University

Spring 1998-May 2001

Provided technical support to students, faculty and alumni for computer-related problems; conducted training sessions for new and returning Helpdesk staff; supervised online course registration; developed technical documentation.

LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY SERVICE EXPERIENCE

Career Resource Center, Peer Career Advisor, Wesleyan University

Fall 2000-Spring 2001

Maintained drop-in hours for quick questions from students regarding resumes, interview skills, job searches and applications; planned and developed monthly events; developed outreach programs for athletes, Residential Advisors and other student groups; worked with the Student of Color Liaison to plan and promote activities.

Economics Department, Course Assistant, Wesleyan University

Fall 1999

Assisted professor during weekly lab session in teaching students the use of Eviews, Mathematica and other econometrics-related software for statistical analysis; provided individual tutoring for students; graded homework assignments.

International Students Organization, Co-Chairperson & Advisor, Wesleyan University

Spring 1998-Present

Managed club finances of $2000, organized multicultural events and community service programs in coordination with local schools and other student organizations; developed first-year student mentoring program; supervised the publication of club newsletters.

Asian/Asian-American House, Treasurer, Wesleyan University

Fall 1998-Spring 1999

Handled a budget of $700; coordinated Asian cultural events and campus parties; organized Asian Awareness Month.

FASA Senior Gift Committee, Coordinator, Wesleyan University

Spring 2000

Planned and created gifts for the departing seniors in coordination with the Freeman Senior Farewell Night.

Wesleyan Gamelan Ensemble, Member, Wesleyan University

Spring 2000

Participated in performances throughout the semester; taught new students the technique of playing gamelan instruments.

Middletown Youth Center, Tutor, Middletown, CT

Fall 1999-Spring 2000

Conducted one-on-one tutorials with Middletown youth on a weekly basis.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Languages: Fluent in Malay; proficient in Cantonese and Hokkien Chinese dialects; working knowledge of Mandarin.Computer Skills: Proficient in Macintosh and Windows operating systems, Macromedia Dreamweaver, Flash and Fireworks, HTML programming, Adobe Photoshop, Microsoft Office, Eviews and Mathematica.