

CENTER FOR THE AMERICAS
PRESENTS

Atlantic Reasonings Between Caribbean Sisters

PERFORMANCES BY

M. NourbeSe
Philip

Gina Athena
Ulysse

Poet and author of She Tries Her Tongue,
Her Silence Softly Breaks and Zong!

Her essay collections include A Genealogy of Resistance and Showing Grit

Performance artist, anthropologist, and author of Why Haiti Needs New Narratives, Downtown Ladies, and
Haiti, me & THE WORLD

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2015 | 7:30 P.M.

MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 221 CHURCH STREET | MIDDLETOWN, CT 06459

SPONSORED BY THE CENTER FOR THE AMERICAS AND THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT'S CONCENTRATION IN CREATIVE WRITING.
CO-SPONSORED BY THE CENTER FOR THE ARTS AND WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PRESS.

Fall Russell House Series

Event information: Contact Laura Borhman, Center for the Americas, 860-658-3112 or click on "Visiting Writers and Events" at wesleyan.edu/writing

WESLEYAN
UNIVERSITY