

IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING ANY OF THE FOLLOWING EMERGENCIES, PLEASE STOP AND CALL 911 IMMEDIATELY:

- Shortness of breath
- Chest pain
- Memory loss (following trauma)
- Coughing or vomiting blood
- Severe or persistent vomiting
- Ingestion of a poisonous substance
- Excessive or prolonged bleeding
- Sudden injury due to a motor vehicle accident, burns or smoke inhalation, near drowning, deep or large wound, etc.
- Acute suicidal or homicidal ideations
- Head or spine injury
- Upper abdominal pain or pressure
- Sudden/severe pain anywhere in the body
- Sudden dizziness/ weakness/change in vision
 - Fainting/loss of consciousness
- Choking

URGENT MEDICAL CONCERNS

- Are you experiencing any of the following?
 - Acute or prolonged pain that you would rate as 7 or higher
 - Blood in your feces or urine
 - Prolonged fever
 - Vomiting/prolonged nausea
 - Vomiting blood
 - A head injury or broken bone
 - An allergic reaction
 - Fainting/dizziness for an extended period of time
 - Adverse effects from an ingested substance/medicine
 - Severe burns or open wounds
 - If you have been sexually assaulted please click here for more information

If you have answered yes to any of the above, please seek help immediately. If the Davison Health Center is open (Monday-Thursday 9am-6pm, Friday 9am-5pm and Saturday 10am-2:00pm), please call 860-685-2470. If not, you can use the same number to contact the on-call doctor and Public Safety is reachable 24/7 at 860-685-2345 for assistance. You can also contact one of the following off-campus medical facilities:

Middlesex Hospital Emergency Department
Crescent Street
Middletown, CT 06457
860-358-6000

Urgent Care Middletown (in Staples Plaza)
896 Washington Street
Middletown, CT 06457
860-788-3632