HISTORY MATTERS

“I Alone Can Fix This”:
The Global Surge of Populist Authoritarianism

Faculty Forum Featuring:

Joan Cho (College of East Asian Studies)
Taisu Zhang (Yale Law School)
Sarah Wiliarty (Government)
Ronald Schatz (History)
William Johnston (History)

Monday, November 21
Judd 116
4:30 p.m.

Sponsored by
The History Department
Snacks and Refreshments included
HISTORY MATTERS

WHY TRUMP? WHY NOW?

Wednesday, September 28, 2016 - 4:30 P.M. - PAC 001

The rise of Donald J. Trump has excited millions of Americans and frightened millions of others. What explains the New Yorker’s rise? Why at this time? Precursors in U.S. history? Parallels elsewhere?

Chair: Professor Ying Jia Tan

Dean Marc Eisner
Professor Ronald Schatz
Professor Victoria Smolkin

Sponsored by the History Department. Snacks and refreshments provided.