

New Media Lab Rates

Primary departmental and academic university websites created at no charge. NML will provide one initial training session per semester to website owner. Website owners are responsible for updating and maintaining the content on their site.

No charges are incurred by faculty/departments requesting services for course-related activities provided that course name and number is presented on request form. (Please contact your Academic Computing Manager prior to submitting a request to the NML.)

All other services are subject to the following charges. (Rush charges will be applied)
