

Join members of Wesleyan University, along with dozens of community members, organizations, businesses and institutions, in making sure local families have a great Thanksgiving meal.

Together, we gather the supplies to fill food baskets for about 1000 local families.

- While we work on this project during the Thanksgiving season, food insecurity is a year-round issue in our community. Please consider engaging in these year-round efforts:
 - Volunteer at or donate to the Amazing Grace Food Pantry or St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen
 - Contribute to our local United Way: www.wesleyan.edu/jccp/unitedway
 - Collaborate with, or attend events hosted by any of Wesleyan's student groups working on food insecurity. Visit OrgSync for more information on these programs:
 - Hunger and Homelessness
 - Food Rescue
 - Bread Salvage
