

Poetry Commonplace Book, 1724
Collection number 1000-62
Preliminary Inventory

1 ledger volume, 35cm, titled "Miscellany Poems./By the most Eminent Hands./Collected by E. C. Anno Dom. 1724." Full table of contents and pagination. No further identification - could be English or American. All poems are in English, with only a few translations from Classical authors, and written with the same hand. The bulk seem to be 17th - early 18th century, with emphasis on Pope and Dryden.

Part of accession 2000-27, which was received in several boxes from sortings and findings by staff of the Wesleyan museum, who uncovered this and other manuscript/printed items long in the university's possession, but never formally cataloged or accessioned by either the museum or library.
