

Preliminary Inventory
William Nicholas Knight Typescript
Collection Number: 1000-270

Date: 1967-1972

Number of containers: 1 slim Hollinger box

Brief description of collection:

The William Nicholas Knight Typescript relates to the life of Wesleyan University English Professor and Shakespeare scholar William Nicholas Knight, mostly Knight's academic and personal writing as well as various articles in which Knight is referenced. This collection consists of numerous photocopies and clippings from publications containing essays, articles, and book reviews by Knight; reviews of Knight's books and plays; the script for the play Knight wrote about the Kennedy assassination, "The Death of J.K."; several published pamphlets; the text of a speech Knight gave at the Wesleyan Center for Humanities; clippings; correspondence; symposium materials; various published articles; notes on the utility of various Shakespeare books; a copy of The Erasmus Review; and an Amherst alumni review containing an article on Knight.

Sonya Sternlieb, Nov. 18, 2016