

Request for Reproduction of Material for Research Use

NOTICE CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain specified conditions, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One condition is that reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user requests or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction in excess of this "fair use" provision, that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
