

A • M • E • R • I • C • A • N DINERS

A Slide Show and Talk
by Richard J. S. Gutman

Richard J. S. Gutman, author of three books on the history of diners, has been working in the diner field for 35 years. He graduated from Cornell University in 1972 with a bachelor of architecture. Beginning in the early 1970s, he popularized diners through slide shows at museums, numerous articles, and a nationwide lecture tour.

Thursday, April 28, 2005

Reception 4:30 p.m. Program 5 p.m.

Smith Reading Room, Olin Library

sponsored by The Friends of the Wesleyan Library