Your Billing Rights

Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About your Bill – If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, e-mail us at jmitchell03@wesleyan.edu or write to us at Wesleyan University, Attn: Jeffrey Mitchell, 74 Wyllys Avenue, Middletown, Connecticut 06459. E-mail or write to us as soon as possible. In your correspondence, give us the following information:

- Your name and Wesleyan ID number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item about which you have a question.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice – We will pass your information along to the department that submitted the charge(s). That department will either correct the charge or notify you why the charge is valid.

After we receive your inquiry regarding a suspected error, we cannot try to collect an amount you question or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including the late payment penalty. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while the charge is being investigated, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we have made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any late fee related to the questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you may have to pay a late fee and you will have to make up any missed payment(s) on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement on the amount you owe and the date it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we determine you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone to whom we report you that you still have a question about your bill. In such circumstances, we must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you, and we must tell anyone to whom we report you as delinquent that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.
