

NON-DEGREE SCHOLAR INFORMATION

GENERAL INFORMATION

Wesleyan offers the following opportunities to take undergraduate courses on a non-degree basis:

Community Scholars: Community Scholars live within a commuting distance from the University and take courses on a per-credit, non-degree basis. Individuals accepted for this category may enroll in up to four courses per semester with the instructor's approval as long as their enrollment does not displace a degree-seeking student.

Residential Scholars: Residential Scholars reside on campus and enroll in a full-time course load on a non-degree basis.

All non-degree students are subject to the following policies:

- An application is required; students must have a high school diploma or the equivalent, and must be approved for admission by Continuing Studies.
- Admission to non-degree status does not constitute admission to Wesleyan University. Non-degree students who wish to apply for admission to degree candidacy may do so through the Admission Office. Their applications will be reviewed according to the same rigorous standards as those of other candidates for admission. Non-degree undergraduates who become admitted to degree candidacy will be expected to satisfy normal degree requirements. Please note that candidates admitted as first-year students may only count two credits taken prior to matriculation (admission to degree candidacy) toward the degree.
- Non-degree students may study at Wesleyan in non-degree status for a maximum of three full-time terms, consecutive or not, and may complete a maximum of twelve units of credit.

Tuition: 2014-2015 tuition is $5963 per credit.

Payment: Tuition in full is due within one week of being admitted to a course. Payment may be made by check or money order, payable to Wesleyan University.

Financial Aid: No financial aid is offered to non-degree students. Students enrolled in other colleges or universities should check with their financial aid office.

Housing and meals: Limited on-campus housing is available to residential scholars on a space-available basis. The per-term residency fee is $6613 for freshmen/sophomores or $7517 for juniors/seniors, and includes a meal plan. Students requesting housing must also provide proof of compliance with the State of Connecticut immunization requirements.

International Students: Students for whom English is not their native language must submit a TOEFL score that demonstrates adequate English language ability.

Transferring Credit to Other Institutions: Scholar students will be issued official Wesleyan University transcripts after grades are received. Since each institution of higher education has its own credit transfer policy, visiting students should contact their own registrar about transferring credits.
