

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PROGRAM IN

REGENSBURG

IN CONSORTIUM WITH VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY AND WHEATON COLLEGE

APPLICATION FORM

____ SPRING 2009

____ SPRING 2010

Name: Last _____ First _____ Middle _____

Home Institution _____ Institutional ID # _____ SS# _____

Citizenship _____ Passport # _____ Date of Birth _____

Place of Birth _____ Class Year _____ Major(s) _____

Current Address _____

Current Telephone _____ E-mail: _____

Permanent Address _____

Home Telephone _____ Parents' (Guardians') Names _____

Parents' (Guardians' Permanent Address(es) (if different from student's) _____

Parents' (Guardians') Home Telephone(s) _____

Parents' (Guardians') E-mail(s) _____

Preparation in German

1. List titles and dates of all German courses you have taken at the college level, including any you are currently taking:

2. List any other preparation for this experience (e.g., residence in Germany, German spoken at home):

3. List courses you might like to take on this program:

 4. Attach a 250-word essay in German, written without assistance, explaining why you wish to participate in this program.
-

The Application Process

Applicants are asked to submit by October 15:

1. Application form
2. 250-word essay in German
3. Language evaluation form
4. Recommendation form from a non-language instructor
5. A copy of your transcript (not required for Wesleyan, Wheaton, or Vanderbilt students)
6. A letter of approval of participation from your dean or study abroad advisor (not required for Wesleyan, Wheaton, or Vanderbilt students)
7. A $25 application fee (not required for Wesleyan, Wheaton, or Vanderbilt students)

NB: This application form and the additional forms for students already accepted into the program can be downloaded as PDF forms from the Web site <http://www.wesleyan.edu/ois/germany1.html>

Applications should be sent to:

Wesleyan students:

Wesleyan Program in Germany
Wesleyan University
105 Fisk Hall
Middletown, CT 06459
Telephone: (860) 685-2550
Fax: (860) 685-2551
gwinter@wesleyan.edu

Vanderbilt students:

Study Abroad Programs
Vanderbilt University
310 25th Avenue South, Suite 115
Nashville, TN 37240
Telephone: (615) 343-3139
Fax: (615) 343-5774
gary.w.johnston@vanderbilt.edu

Wheaton students:

Center for Global Education
Wheaton College
26 East Main Street
Norton, MA 02766
Telephone: (508) 286-4950
Fax: (508) 286-4975
globaled@wheatonma.edu

Outside students send applications to Wesleyan University for spring 2010.

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PROGRAM IN

REGENSBURG

IN CONSORTIUM WITH VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY AND WHEATON COLLEGE

Language Report for (name to be filled in by applicant):

This is an academically rigorous six-month program of study at the University of Regensburg. Students matriculate and do all work in German. Please keep in mind that we seek to admit students of high academic promise who are well-equipped to adapt to a different cultural and linguistic environment. Please be candid in evaluating this applicant.

1. Based on applicant's level, please evaluate his or her knowledge of German in the following categories:

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
a. reading
b. composition
c. general conversation
d. comprehension

2. Please indicate in which courses you have taught the applicant and state your general estimation of the student's ability in German:

3. Please comment on what you know about the student's intellectual motivation, emotional maturity, and adaptability to a different cultural environment. Use a separate sheet if you wish.

Signed _____ Date _____

Name _____ Title _____

Address _____

Please return by October 15 as follows:

Wesleyan Program in Germany
Wesleyan University
105 Fisk Hall
Middletown, CT 06459

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PROGRAM IN

REGENSBURG

IN CONSORTIUM WITH VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY AND WHEATON COLLEGE

Faculty Member's Evaluation for (name to be filled in by applicant):

This is an academically rigorous six-month program of study at the University of Regensburg. Students matriculate and do all work in German. Please keep in mind that we seek to admit students of high academic promise who are well-equipped to adapt to a different cultural and linguistic environment. Please be candid in evaluating this applicant.

1. Please evaluate the applicant with respect to the following categories:

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Unable to judge
a. Motivation and seriousness of purpose
b. Ability to express thoughts in speech and writing
c. Emotional stability
d. Self-reliance and independence
e. Impression the student will make abroad

2. Please list courses in which you have taught the applicant:

3. Please comment on the student's intellectual qualities, academic interests, and ability to benefit from study in Germany. Use a separate sheet if you wish.

Signed _____ Date _____

Name _____ Title _____

Address _____

Please return by October 15 as follows:

Wesleyan Program in Germany
Wesleyan University
105 Fisk Hall
Middletown, CT 06459