FROM THE OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES -

This is a reminder that the General Wesleyan Permission to Study Abroad Application is due on Thursday, October 15, 2009 for all students planning to study abroad for the spring 2010 semester. This is the "permission to study abroad" application that ALL students must complete, regardless of program choice, including Wesleyan-administered programs. Applications must be turned in at the Office of International Studies, 105 Fisk Hall by the end of the day on October 15. Please note this is also the deadline for the program-specific application for the Wesleyan Program in Regensburg.

A copy of the permission application may be picked up at the Office of International Studies or printed from our website at www.wesleyan.edu/ois. Just click on "Applications" in the "Forms" bucket and print the "Permission to Study Abroad" PDF document.

A complete application includes the following 7 items:

- Personal information sheet
- Academic justification essay
- Pre-approved courses form
- Online Health Information Clearance form*
- Student Medical Release and Parental Statement form
- Assumption of Risk and Release and Waiver form
- Standards of Conduct Pledge

*All applicants must complete our online Health Information Clearance form. If you have not already done so, you may still do it now. It is in your student e-Portfolio under “Tools and Links.” Be sure to do this by October 15.

We cannot accept applications after that date. Applications must be turned in at the Office of International Studies, 105 Fisk Hall.

Please note that approved programs (not run by Wesleyan) have their own specific deadlines so students should check directly with the programs to make certain that applications are filed in a timely manner.
