

Acknowledgements

We wish to express our appreciation to the many individuals and groups who have contributed to Mind Matters over the course of this year. Wesleyan University's Department of Psychology, its faculty, and staff have provided us with much valuable support. We are especially thankful for the efforts of the many faculty members who have promoted Mind Matters in their classrooms and encouraged their students to become involved with the Journal. We wish to thank Professor Ruth Striegel-Moore, Chair of the Department of Psychology, for her continued encouragement, guidance, and invaluable advice throughout the year. Additionally, we thank Cathy Race and Tina Velasquez for their assistance and support.

Beyond the Department of Psychology, we have received generous support from the Wesleyan Student Assembly. The staff at Acme Bookbinding has also been extremely helpful in this process.

The student reviewers, Caterina Di Perri, Laura Geronimo, Yumin He, Christian Hoyos, Gwynne Huntner, Phoebe Jones, Tara Kahn, Uruj Kamal, Rebecca Loomis, Martine Seiden, Lauren Sonnabend, and Kacey Wochna provided indispensable support, involving themselves and assisting in many ways throughout this process. They give us great hope for the continued success of Mind Matters. As always, we would like to thank Arthur Sugden for designing the layout of the journal and creating the face of Mind Matters.

Finally, we appreciate the love and encouragement from our family and friends.
