TUITION

Tuition for Summer Session 2013:
- $2,800 per course
- $5,600 per Institute

HOUSING

Students who choose to live on campus for Summer Session 2013 will reside in Bennet Hall, which is air-conditioned and equipped with a community kitchen and a spacious central community lounge, as well as study and social lounges. Adjacent to Foss Hill, the building is in close proximity to dining facilities, Olin Library, and other academic buildings. Single and double rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

- Residential fee for one session:
  - $744 for a double or $930 for a single
- Residential fee for both sessions:
  - $1,536 for a double or $1,920 for a single

FINANCIAL AID — Deadline March 26, 2013

A limited amount of financial aid will be available to Wesleyan University students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Restrictions apply. For more information, call 860/685-2005.

Wesleyan Summer Session is an intensive learning experience.

- 13-week courses in less than 5 weeks
- Very small classes
- Close relationships with faculty and students
- Immersive study and concentrated focus

Wesleyan is renowned for its exceptional faculty and “small liberal arts college” experience. Summer Session, with its very small classes and compressed schedule, is Wesleyan concentrated.

To round out this academic experience, Wesleyan Summer Session will offer activities outside the classroom, such as picnics, performances, and movies for summer students.

Join former Summer Session students and program staff to learn more.
