GENERAL INFORMATION

Wesleyan University’s Summer Session offers academically rigorous undergraduate courses that will meet daily, Monday through Friday, from Wednesday, May 30 through Friday, June 29, 2012.

Enrollment: Enrollment in the Summer Session is open to all students who feel they have the academic qualifications and stamina to complete an intellectually challenging course in a compressed schedule. Students may enroll in a maximum of two courses.

Costs: Tuition is $2,700 per credit. The residency fee for students staying in on-campus housing is $885 for an air-conditioned double room, $1,100 for an air-conditioned single room.

Payment: Payment in full is due with registrations. Payment may be made by check or money order, payable to Wesleyan University.

Financial Aid: Financial aid is limited to Wesleyan University students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Students enrolled in other colleges or universities should check with their financial aid office.

Housing: Limited on-campus housing is available on a first-come, first-served basis to students who have been graduated from high school and at least 18 years old. Students requesting housing must also provide proof of compliance with the State of Connecticut immunization requirements. Students are not required to live on-campus during the Summer Session.

Meals: Meals are not provided during the Summer Session. Residence facilities will have kitchens.

Identification Card: Students are required to have an identification card called a WesCard to access University facilities, including the libraries. Students may deposit money on their WesCard for use in University facilities such as the bookstore or participating Middletown merchants. An application for a WesCard will be emailed to students.

International Students: The Summer Session is not a full time program; international students should check with their school’s Designated School Official to clarify any visa questions or issues.

Transferring Credit to Other Institutions: Visiting students will be issued official Wesleyan University transcripts after grades are received for the Summer Session. Since each institution of higher education has its own credit transfer policy, visiting students should contact their own registrar about transferring credits.

Students with Disabilities: Wesleyan University is committed to making its educational programs and facilities accessible to people with disabilities. Students with a documented disability that requires accommodation should notify the Office of Disabilities Services by April 2, 2012, or as soon as possible thereafter, by submitting the Disabilities Services Notification Form - Summer Session. Information about requesting housing, academic and other accommodations is available at the office’s website, or you may write to disabilitiesservices@wesleyan.edu.

Questions: Please contact the Summer Session office at summer@wesleyan.edu or (860) 685-2900 with any questions.
