Conversation with the President

Printing – Ricoh – Wes-Find-Me-Printers

- Partnership between ITS, Finance, and Sustainability
  - 132 Ricoh multi-function copiers replaced across campus – data informed
  - Why now? Aging fleet; lease expiration
  - Fixed savings: $31K annual - $155K life of contract
- PaperCut print management solution
  - Simplicity and Convenience: One print queue “Wes-Find-Me-Printers.” Print job can be released from on device on campus
  - Security: Nothing prints until you release the job at a Ricoh device
  - Variable Savings: Thoughtful printing: decrease waste, promotes black & white / double-sided. *only pay for what you print.*

Time-line: Project implementation will be completed by end of December 2020

Spring Course Planning

- Standard Meetings times the same as Fall 2020
- EPC in conversation with the Registrar about finding a common time
- Faculty are asked to complete the form detailing their course and grading mode by October 30. Chairs/AA's will have access to the forms via Share Point.
- Chairs/AA's to update CourseLeaf by November 2
- Please join AcAf and Institutional Research for a presentation of the Fall student and faculty survey results

Visiting and PoP Faculty Process

- Requests are due by Tuesday, December 1

Equity Fellowships

- Distinguished Visiting Scholar or Artist Fellowship

Wesleyan will establish a Distinguished Visiting Scholar or Artist Fellowship for teaching and research that centers the experiences of people of color and those underrepresented in the academy. Any department, program, or college may apply. In addition to a salary, fellows will receive support for research / creative practice.

- Post-Degree Research Fellowship

Wesleyan will establish a Post-Degree Research Fellowship for an emerging scholar or artist whose teaching and research are centered on the experiences of people of color and those underrepresented in the academy. Any department, program, or college may apply. In addition to a salary, this fellowship will feature a focused mentorship program in both research and teaching, as well as research/creative practice support.

- Internal Fellowship for Teaching and Research

Wesleyan will establish an internal fellowship for teaching and research focused on the experiences of BIPOC and those underrepresented in the academy. Any department, program, or college may apply. Applicants will receive a research award, course relief and service exemption as negotiated with their department and Academic Affairs. Priority is given to applications that engage Wesleyan student's and suggest impact beyond academia.

Thank you!

Spring meeting dates and times will be determined soon
