Why I chose Wesleyan:

I chose Wesleyan because of the people I met on my visit to campus. The students I spoke with, both athletes and non-athletes, were so equally passionate about their activities in and out of the classroom that I was inspired and motivated to join the Wesleyan community.

Outside the Classroom:

Extracurriculars:

- Varsity Baseball
- Baseball Analytics Club
- Club Ice Hockey
- Intramural Basketball Official

Favorite Activity at Wes:

Refereeing intramural basketball on Sundays with my friends

Favorite moment at Wes:

The first fall scrimmage for baseball when I got to meet everyone on the team.

Favorite movie(s):

- Miracle
- Cars

Favorite song:

-When You Were Young by The Killers

Fun Fact:

My sister and I both broke our left collarbones in foreign countries; she did it in Ireland, and I did it in Canada.

Academic Interests:

Government and Economics

Favorite class at Wes:

Economic Analysis and the Law with Richard Adelstein

Current Classes:

Quantitative Methods in Economics
American Constitutional Law
Ireland's Troubled Past
Behavioral Neurobiology

Why I want to be a tour guide:

I was a tour guide at my high school, and I loved working with the admissions staff because they were the most passionate about the community. When I came to Wesleyan, I was looking for the same feelings and enthusiasm and I knew that I could find it in admissions.
