

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Kristina Wong

Thursday, September 10 —
Tuesday, October 27, 2020

“[Kristina Wong has a] gift for fusing performance art with political commentary and edgy humor.”
—LA Weekly

Performance artist, comedian, and writer Kristina Wong’s virtual residency includes a performance of Kristina Wong for Public Office, Noontime talks, plus a Wesleyan Engage 2020 talk.

The Era Footwork Crew

Thursday, September 17 —
Thursday, October 15, 2020

“The Era has taken footwork back for Chicago.”
—Chicago Tribune

A virtual residency featuring The Era Footwork Crew will include a film screening, a dance workshop/lab session and conversation with Hartford-based street dance collective 860VMNT, and a panel discussion.

A Conversation with Ananya Chatterjea and Hari Krishnan: Rethinking “Navaratri”

Friday, October 2, 2020
7pm

Professor and Chair of the Dance Department Hari Krishnan will speak with Ananya Chatterjea, Artistic Director of Ananya Dance Theatre, in this free talk, part of the 44th annual Navaratri Festival at Wesleyan.

A SCULPTURE, A FILM, & SIX VIDEOS

Tuesday, September 8 —
Sunday, November 22, 2020
Ezra and Cecile Zilkha Gallery

An exhibition of a sculpture, a film and a survey of six recent video works presented in a nontraditional, temporal framework.

Image: Peter Fischli / David Weiss, Son et Lumière, 1990
Swiss Army-issued flashlight, turntable, plastic cup, adhesive tape
Dimensions variable
Photograph by David Heald, courtesy Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York

Visit www.wesleyan.edu/cfa for a full listing of upcoming events.

Reserve your spot for all free virtual fall events today!