

Fellowship	Overview	Eligibility	Field of Undergraduate Study	Selection Criteria	Campus Process Timeline	National Deadline
INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE
Fulbright	A year of independent research, creative work, graduate study, or English teaching in a foreign country; 2000+ awards each year.	U.S. citizens only; graduating seniors or recent alumni	Any field: humanities, creative arts, social sciences, STEM	Quality of proposal, academic or professional preparation, personal qualifications, requirements established by partner countries. No minimum GPA requirement. Any motivated, interested, curious student should apply.	Express intent by end of Spring; prepare application during summer with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: late August.	early Oct.
Luce	One-year internship in a specific professional setting in Asia to advance knowledge of Asia among future American leaders. Wes among 75 participating institutions. Up to 18 awards each year.	U.S. citizens and permanent residents; graduating seniors, alumni, young professionals. Those with significant exposure to Asia are not eligible.	Any field except Asian studies. OK to have taken some courses in Asian studies or languages.	High achievement, outstanding ability, clearly defined professional interests, potential, personal qualities (resilience, flexibility, openness, humility)	Express interest by end of Spring; prepare application during summer with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: early October.	early Nov.
Watson	One-year grant for purposeful, independent exploration outside the US. Fellows pursue an original project in multiple countries. Wes among 40 participating colleges. ~40 awards each year.	All citizenships, graduating seniors only.	Any field	Passion, imagination, independence, leadership, resourcefulness, courage. No minimum GPA requirement. Students who are passionate, bold, original thinkers should apply; outstanding academic record not necessary.	Express interest by end of Spring; prepare application during summer without support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: late August.	early Nov.
RESEARCH
Fulbright	See above
Bose	One-semester placement at STEM research institutions in India. See program	U.S. citizens and permanent residents, Indian citizens.	Any field of science and engineering	Academic achievement, significant relevant coursework, research experience, commitment to career in Science and Technology.	No campus nomination. Students apply directly to the program.	tbd description . ~6 awards each year.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
Luce	See above
Gaither/ Carnegie Jr.	One-year position as research assistant to a senior scholar working on policy topics at Carnegie Endowment for Peace. ~12 fellowships each year.	All citizenships, graduating seniors and alumni within a year of graduation	Relevant to topic area; usu. political science, government, economics, social studies, area studies	High GPA, academic preparation, significant research experience, knowledge of current issues in topic area. Outstanding students with passion for research and writing, high academic and extracurricular achievement in topic area should apply.	Express intent during summer; prepare application during summer and early fall with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: mid-November.	mid-Jan.
LANGUAGE LEARNING
Boren	An overseas language and cultural immersion program, 4-12 months. Funds study of less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests: Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, Middle East. Scholars must work for the federal government for at least one year after graduation.	U.S. citizens, frosh, sophomores, juniors . Must be enrolled as undergraduate through the duration of the program.	Any relevant field but must want to work in federal national security.	Preference given to students who will study abroad for longer periods of time (up to a year) and who are highly motivated by the opportunity to work in the federal government.	Express intent by early Fall, prepare application during Fall with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: November.	early Feb.
Critical Language Scholarship	An intensive overseas language and cultural immersion summer program. 8-10 weeks of intensive instruction in one of 15 languages critical to national security.	U.S. citizens, all class years, enrolled at time of application. Some languages have proficiency requirements.	Any field; any career goal	Academic record; potential to succeed in a rigorous academic setting; commitment to language learning; connection between target language and career/academic goals; knowledge of host culture.	Express intent by early Fall, prepare application during Fall with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: late October.	November

FUNDING FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDY

Goldwater	Funding toward academic expenses for undergraduates who show exceptional promise of becoming research leaders in STEM fields.	U.S. citizens, sophomores and juniors	STEM fields, including psychology and medicine	High GPA in relevant courses; research experience; commitment to a research career in the natural sciences, mathematics and engineering; potential for a significant future contribution to research in chosen field. Outstanding STEM students should apply.	Express intent by early Fall, prepare application during Fall with support from Fellowships and faculty advisor. Campus deadline: mid-November	late Jan.
Udall	Funding toward academic expenses for students working on issues related to Native American nations or to the environment. Up to 50 awards each year.	U.S. citizens, nationals, permanent residents; sophomores and juniors . For tribal policy program, Native Americans and Alaska Natives.	Environmental studies, social studies, other relevant fields	Leadership, public service, commitment to environmental issues or Native American issues. Students with an exceptional record of campus leadership and public service related to these issues should apply.	Express intent in the Fall; prepare application during winter break with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: late January	early March

GRADUATE STUDY IN THE U.S.

Beinecke	$34,000 toward a research-focused graduate degree in the arts, humanities, social sciences. Wes among 135 participating institutions. 18 awards each year.	U.S. citizens and nationals, juniors only . Must receive need-based financial aid.	Arts, humanities, social sciences. Not eligible: neuroscience, professional degrees in law, business, public health, social work.	High academic achievement, intellectual ability, personal promise, extracurricular involvement. Preference to those with high levels of need. Program designed to support underrepresented students.	Express intent by early Fall; prepare application during Fall with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: early January	early Feb.
Truman	$30,000 toward graduate study for a public-service related degree in preparation for careers in government, education, nonprofit, or public interest/advocacy sector. Must	U.S. citizens and nationals, permanent residents who will be citizens by the time scholarships are awarded; juniors only .	Especially social sciences but open to students in any field who plan to work in public service	High GPA, outstanding record of community and public service, campus leadership, student government, internships, political campaigns. Exceptionally accomplished students who are future “change agents” should apply.	Express intent in summer; prepare application in summer and early Fall with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: early November.	early Feb.

	work in public service for 3 years after completing graduate degree. ~60 awards each year.
Knight Hennessy	Funding for up to 3 years of graduate study at Stanford, in any degree program except Philosophy. 100 awards each year.	All citizenships; graduating seniors and alumni within 5 years of graduation	Any field	High academic achievement (must get into department at Stanford), independent thinking, leadership, civic mindset. Can “out-think, out-work, and out-care others.” Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	Express intent in Spring, prepare applications to Stanford and to the Knight Hennessy program during summer with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: mid-Sept.	October
GRADUATE STUDY ABROAD
Schwarzman	One-year Master’s program at Tsinghua University in Beijing in Public Policy, Economics, or International Studies. 200 awards each year.	All citizenships; graduating seniors, alumni under age 29	Any field	Academic excellence (no minimum GPA requirement); demonstrated leadership potential. Program designed for “the world’s most talented young leaders.” Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	Express interest in Spring; prepare application with support from Fellowships in spring/summer. Campus deadline late Apr. for those with Chinese passports; late Aug. for others	late May/ late Sept.
Rhodes U.S.	Two to three years of study in any degree program at Oxford. 32 awards each year.	U.S. citizens, graduating seniors and alumni under age 25.	Any field	Outstanding academic achievement, min. 3.7 GPA, other talents demonstrated in extracurriculars, leadership, character, commitment to others and common good. Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	Express interest in Spring; prepare application in summer (no feedback allowed!). Campus deadline: early September	early Oct.
Rhodes Intl.	Two to three years of study in any degree program at Oxford. Number of awards varies by country.	Many countries outside the U.S. Eligibility varies by country.	Any field	Outstanding academic achievement, min. 3.7 GPA, other talents demonstrated in extracurriculars, leadership, character, commitment to others and common good. Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	Express interest in Spring; prepare application in summer (no feedback on drafts allowed!). Campus deadline depends on external deadline.	Varies by country
Marshall	One to two years of graduate study in the UK, at any university,	U.S. citizens, graduating seniors, alumni	Any field	Outstanding academic achievement, min. 3.7 GPA. Demonstrated potential to excel as scholars,	Express interest in Spring; prepare application with support from Fellowships	late Sept.

	in any field. Up to 50 awards each year.	within 2 years of graduation.		leaders and as contributors to improved UK-US understanding. Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	during summer. Campus deadline: early Sept.
Mitchell	One year of graduate study in any field at any university in Ireland, incl. Northern Ireland. 12 awards each year.	U.S. citizens, graduating seniors and alumni up to age 30.	Any field	Academic excellence (no minimum GPA requirement), leadership, sustained commitment to community and public service. Exceptionally accomplished students should apply.	Express interest in Spring; prepare application in summer (no feedback allowed!). Campus deadline: early Sept.	late Sept.
Churchill	One year of graduate research/study in STEM fields at Cambridge University, Churchill College.	U.S. citizens, graduating seniors, alumni within 12 months of graduation.	Natural sciences, math, engineering, linguistics, music and science	Outstanding academic achievement, esp. in the major; usu. at least 3.9 GPA. Exceptional potential for future advancement of knowledge in chosen field. Outstanding personal qualities. Exceptionally talented students should apply.	Express interest in Spring; prepare application in summer (no feedback allowed!). Campus deadline: early October	late Oct.
Gates Cambridge	One to three years of graduate study in any field at Cambridge.	All citizenships, graduating seniors and alumni of any age.	Any field	Outstanding academic achievement, high GPA, good fit with the chosen program, commitment to improving lives of others, leadership.	Express interest in Spring, prepare application in summer with support from Fellowships. No campus nomination.	early Oct.
Keasbey	Up to 2 years of graduate study in the UK. Open to Wes every three years; next open cycle in Fall 2021 (Class of 2022). 3 awards each year.	U.S. citizens, graduating seniors only.	Any field	High academic achievement, extracurricular activities, leadership. Outstanding students should apply.	Express interest in Spring, prepare application in summer with support from Fellowships. Campus deadline: early Sept.	mid-Nov.
Fulbright	See above					