1. How is your interest in the sciences interdisciplinary and integrative? (100 words maximum)

2. How would admission to the CIS enhance your academic and professional goals? (100 words maximum)

3. Briefly describe any previous research experience. (100 words maximum)

4. Describe your proposed research project and how it relates to interdisciplinary and integrative science. You are strongly recommended to consult your proposed faculty advisor with a draft of your research proposal. Limit the proposal to a maximum of 500 words.