THE DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL STUDIES WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PRESENTS

PROFESSOR MOLLY SWETNAM-BURLAND (WES '95)

THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

BRONZE CRATER OF MITHRIDATES VI EUPATOR OF PONTUS (2ND CENTURY BCE) FOUND IN NERO'S VILLA IN ANZIO, ITALY

The Roman Emperors owned residences throughout Italy – places where they hosted friends, communicated with the public, and formulated policy.

Prof. Swetnam – Burland surveys the legions of enslaved and formerly enslaved men and women who worked for the Emperors: the kinds of tasks they performed, the evidence for their social clubs, and the funerary monuments where they expressed their Idenities

MONDAY, MARCH 3

113 Downey House 4:30 pm