The James T. Gutmann Field Studies Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2007 by Dr. Lisette Cooper ‘81, to honor her former professor and mentor, Professor James T. Gutmann.

The Gutmann Scholarship is awarded by the Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences to an especially promising member of the rising junior, junior or senior classes either to defray the costs of a summer course in field geology or to support geologic field research expected to lead to a senior honors thesis as a James T. Gutmann Scholar.
