

Non-custodial Parent Waiver Petition

Student's Name: _____

Class: _____

Financial information is required from either biological or adoptive parents to determine a student's financial aid award. Wesleyan University recognizes that extenuating circumstances in individual cases may make it impossible to obtain information from a non-custodial parent. If the non-custodial parent's whereabouts are unknown, if there has been extremely limited or no contact with the non-custodial parent for a significant period of time, or if there are other extenuating circumstances, the collection of non-custodial financial information may be waived. By completing this form, you are petitioning that an exception be made to the requirement of financial information from your noncustodial parent. Exceptions are rare and only occur when exceptional circumstances exist, such as orders of protection.

Note: Unwillingness of a noncustodial parent to contribute financially is not a sufficient reason to file this petition.

Noncustodial Parent Information

1. Provide any additional information below that would help us to better understand the circumstances that you believe make it appropriate for us not to require any financial information or contribution from your noncustodial parent. Be sure to provide as much detail as possible and attach additional pages if necessary. You must also attach any applicable documentation to substantiate or expand upon your situation.
2. Attach a statement from a third party (other than your attorney or immediate family members) that verifies the amount of contact that you have with your noncustodial parent. The person writing this statement should have long-term knowledge of your family situation. Typically, these letters come from counselors, ministers, and other professionals close to a student's situation.

I certify that all the information provided on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
