If you are not selected for a Freeman Scholarship, but would like to be considered for admission to Wesleyan University AND you do not require financial aid from Wesleyan, please check: ☐

NOTE: A $55 application fee is required for "regular" candidates, but no fee is necessary for students only applying for the Freeman Asian Scholarship. You will also need to submit the Certification of Finances Form documenting that your family has at least $54,000 per year to support your education at Wesleyan.

EDUCATION

Please list any schools you have attended in the past four years.

Name of school	Address	Dates attended

If your education has been interrupted for any reason (including suspension) please check here: ☐ Describe briefly on a separate sheet.
If not currently attending school, please check here: ☐ Describe briefly, on a separate sheet, your activities since last enrolled.

Wesleyan Interest:

How did you become interested in the Wesleyan Freeman Asian Scholars Program? Indicate significant sources of information or opinion by underlining those to which you have been exposed and placing an asterisk (*) beside the most influential:

EducationUSA Office	Campus Visit	Wesleyan alumnus	Family Member
College handbook or guide	Local Reception/Info. Session	Current Wesleyan Student	Friend
Other publication	School (counselor or teacher)	College Fair	Newspaper
School visit by Representative	Video	Worldwide web page	Local AIG Office

List any persons who encouraged your interest in Wesleyan, giving his or her name and relationship to you:

SUPPLEMENTAL ESSAY:

In addition to the personal essay submitted for the Common Application, the following essay question is to be answered by all Freeman Scholarship applicants. Don't forget to indicate your name and Wesleyan I.D. number.

On a separate sheet of paper, please tell us how you would use your Wesleyan education to make a contribution to your home country. (Approximately 400 words.)

PEER REFERENCE:

Please ask a peer (generally understood as a friend, or one with similar social status) to write a recommendation for you and to submit it either electronically to Loreen Carta (lcarta@wesleyan.edu) or by regular post: Office of Admission, Wesleyan University, 70 Wyllys Avenue, Middletown, Connecticut 06459, U.S.A. Be sure the peer reference includes your name, school, and Wesleyan ID number. The reference should address qualifications for attending a highly selective university in the U.S. Topics that might be discussed are interests, maturity, independence, ability to work with others and flexibility. Specific examples or anecdotes illustrating these characteristics are more helpful than general comments.
