THE NEW GROUP Whereas, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight, a group was founded by some singers, containing, among other things, the following, to wit: That New Group should don the title of "sexy a cappella group" forthwith, that Wesleyan will radiate with the vital essence of pure awesome. Now, the Wesleyan New Group, by virtue of the pitch recognition vested in our ears, in time of open concert with other groups, hereunto set our voices and cause notes in harmonies to be affixed.

Sponsored by the Charles B. Stone, Jr. A Cappella Fund. The Charles B. Stone, Jr. A Cappella Fund was established through the generosity of Sarah Stone Maynard '79, P'11 and Fred Maynard '80, P'11 in honor of Sarah's father, Chip Stone '49, P'79, P'82, GP'11, GP'15, and in celebration of the Stone family's long Wesleyan legacy. Once called the "singing college of New England," Wesleyan still boasts a strong musical tradition. The Annual Stone A Cappella Concert provides an extraordinary showcase of the vocal talent and stage presence of Wesleyan undergraduates.
