

SAVE THE DATE JULY 8-12

HOT SCHOOLS BACK TO THE FUTURE STILL LEADING THE WAY

Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut

The 20th annual Higher Order Thinking (HOT) Schools Summer Institute will highlight the HOT APPROACH as a reliable keystone for employing instructional practice that cultivates critical, creative and innovative thinkers, inspires and motivates educators, and sparks the joy in teaching and learning. Join us July 8-12, 2013 for the Professional Development ride of your life! Our guest speakers will include...

GARRY GOLDEN is an academically trained Futurist who speaks and consults on issues shaping business and society in the 21st century. Garry is Co-author of Designing Your Future. He has led workshops and delivered keynote addresses across a wide range of civic and cultural institutions including: The Art Institutes (EDMC), BRIC Arts/Media, New York Library Association, McGraw-Hill Companies, California Association of Museums, Philadelphia Museum of Art, Right Brain Initiative, and Woodruff Center for the Arts.

ERIC BOOTH has served on the faculty of Juilliard for the past 13 years, where he cofounded the Arts and Education Program and Mentoring Programs. He has also taught at Stanford University, NYU and Lincoln Center Institute. He serves as a consultant for many organizations (including 7 of America's 10 largest orchestras), cities, states, arts service organizations, and businesses around the country. Eric has published 5 books, including The Everyday Work of Art and The Music Teaching Artist's Bible: Becoming a Virtuoso Educator.

DEBORAH BRZOSKA is a nationally recognized leader in arts education who has worked with schools and arts organizations internationally and in nearly all 50 states. She is a former dancer-choreographer as well as the founding principal of an award-winning arts-centered public school in Vancouver, Washington. Brzoska is a specialist in creative school reform and served as school designer for the Small Schools Project, funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

STEVE SEIDEL is the Director of the Arts in Education Program at Harvard Graduate School of Education. At Project Zero, he was principal investigator on projects that study the use of reflective practice in schools, the close examination of student work and documentation of learning. He recently completed Arts Survive, a study of sustainability of arts education partnerships. His teaching and writing for the past decade have largely focused on arts education and the improvement of teaching and assessment across elementary and secondary settings.

DR. YONG ZHAO is an internationally known scholar, author, and speaker. His works focus on the implications of globalization and technology on education. He has designed schools that cultivate global competence and founded research and development institutions to explore innovative education models. He has published over 100 articles and 20 books, including Catching Up or Leading the Way: American Education in the Age of Globalization and World Class Learners: Educating Creative and Entrepreneurial Students.

...and featuring performances by CHRISTOPHER EAVES, JIMMY GREENE QUARTET, GALLIM DANCE, BARRY LANE LITERACY CABARET, THE AMIGOS BAND and more!

ONLINE REGISTRATION OPENS MAY 18TH!

www.wesleyan.edu/greenstreet/partnerships/hotschools.html

2013

Connecticut
still revolutionary

Department of Economic and Community Development
Office of the Arts