

History Department Fall 2019 Thesis Colloquium Schedule:

(All sessions held in PAC 136, beginning at 4:30 P.M.)

L NAME	F NAME	THESIS TITLE	THESIS ADVISOR	DATE
Valenta	Mathias	Maréchal Nous Voilà: The Ideological Origins and Nature of the Vichy Regime	Greene	10/23
Vartanian	Tess	From Anathema to Dialogue: Catholic Engagement with Modern Unbelief Under Pope Paul VI	Smolkin	10/23
McCarthy	Samuel	American Jewish Criticism of Israel, 1948–1956	Schatz	10/24
Palakarn	Bright	Cabinet of Division: the 1941 Japanese Invasion and Thai Modern Political History	Johnston	10/24
Alfaro-Rivera	Maximo	Reconstructing Francisco Pizarro: Biography and the Appropriation of his Political Image	Shaw	10/31
Thomas-Franz	Kaitlyn	Spanish Brujeria and Scottish Maleficium: Witchcraft in the Early World	LopezFadul	10/31
Molina	Ted	A Science of Stability: Dollar Diplomacy and the Development of an American Financial Empire in the Tropics	Erickson	11/06
Perez	Jorge	“Choose we”: Shakespeare and the Early Modern English Public Sphere	Holmes	11/06
Krieger	Nathan	The Adventurer Hero: British Explorers and the Culture of Exploration in the Great Game	Pinch	11/07
Nago	Fumiko	An Intellectual Biography of Ienaga Saburo: A Man Behind Japanese Textbook Controversy	Johnston	11/13
Rich	Charlotte	The Poorer Sick”: American Gynecology and Its Irish Subjects in Mid-Nineteenth Century New York City	Tucker	11/13
Chen	Silin	From the Victim to the Promoter--Analysis of pro-nuclear movement in Japan during 1950s~1960s	Johnston	11/14
Wesley	Madeline	Local 26: Boston’s Immigrants’ Union	Schatz	11/14
Horky	Carson	Indigenous Communities and the St. Francis Dam Disaster	Lennox	11/20
Law	Sophia	Commercial inflight catering: reforming technologies of aviation	Twagira	11/20
Ginsberg	Jack	Democratizing the Frontier: the Land Grant University	Miller	11/21
Johnson	Max	Historical Theater: American Plays on the Invasion of Iraq	Holmes	11/21
Buechler	Nell	Napoleon, Superstition, and Mysticism	Kleinberg	12/04
Zhang	Harry	An Intellectual History of the 1989 Tiananmen Student Movement: Enlightenment, National Rejuvenation, and Revolutionary Legacy	Tan	11/07