

Wesleyan's Christian Student Groups & Gatherings:

Catholic Mass

Catholic Mass is celebrated weekly on Sunday evenings at 7:00pm in Memorial Chapel.

Contact: Mary DePascale (mdepascale@wesleyan.edu)

Ecumenical Christian Community Dinner

All are invited to gather on Sunday at 5:00pm in Allbritton 311 for prayer, Scripture, discussion, and dinner. All are welcome.

Contact: Rev. Tracy Mehr-Muska (tmehrmuska@wesleyan.edu)

Catholic Student Organization (CSO)

The Catholic Student Organization is a group of students discovering and practicing the Catholic faith. We seek to understand what it means to receive, express, and live in unity with God's transcendent love through theological discussion, community prayer, social activism, inter-religious collaboration, and community engagement.

Contact: Mary DePascale (mdepascale@wesleyan.edu)

Multicultural Campus Ministries (MCM)

Multicultural Campus Ministries is a group that serves as a forum for faith exploration through cultural, educational, and social activities. Their mission is to build a family of Christ believers seeking to establish fellowship, discipleship and communion with the multicultural Wesleyan community. They attend conferences, hold bible studies, fellowship, and much, much more!

Contact: Stacey Uchendu (suchendu@wesleyan.edu)

Wesleyan Association of Christian Thinkers (WACT)

Wesleyan Association of Christian Thinkers (WACT) is an ecumenical, liberal, and inclusive Christian group aimed at promoting philosophical and theological discussions, creating spiritual community, and participating in social outreach.

Contact: Claire Wright (clwright@wesleyan.edu)

Wesleyan Christian Fellowship (WesCF)

Wesleyan Christian Fellowship is a student group and community that brings together people who desire to celebrate or investigate Christianity. They use different vehicles of expression, ranging from evening discussions to Spring Break volunteer trips in New Orleans. We seek to create a welcoming space for people at all stages in their journeys of faith.

Contact: Jinsol Hyun (jhyun@wesleyan.edu)

