Call for proposals: Faculty Equity & Inclusion Micro Grants

Purpose:
The purpose is to provide one-time funding for faculty to strengthen teaching, pedagogical practices, and research with equity and inclusion implications for our increasingly diverse student community.

The grants are designed to advance several potential initiatives:
1. Innovative approaches to building inclusive classes (e.g., inclusive curriculum development, or cross-disciplinary efforts to infuse equity and inclusion topics);
2. Inclusive pedagogical approaches to curricula;
3. Initiatives to address the shifting needs of an increasingly diverse student population; and
4. Research projects with equity and inclusion implications.

Eligibility:
All tenured and tenure-track faculty and full-time visiting faculty are eligible.

Applicants should be interested in addressing issues pertaining to enhancing community building and democratic civic values and should demonstrate an interest in the learning needs of current and future Wesleyan students in the classroom.

Successful applicants will be funded at the amount of $500 for the academic year, with one grant offered per academic division. Marc Eisner (Dean of Social and Behavioral Sciences), Antonio Farias (Vice President for Equity and Inclusion), and Mark Hovey (Associate Provost) will read proposals. If you have questions, please contact Antonio Farias, afarias@wesleyan.edu
