

Jackson L. Goodhue, Class of 1957
Collection of Clippings and Photos Relating to
The History of the Douglas Cannon

Accession: 1000-203

Scrapbook compiled by Jackson L. Goodhue, Class of 1957, relating to the 1957 Douglas Cannon heist. Collection includes clippings from campus and local newspapers and photographs. Included with the collection is Mr. Goodhue's correspondence (both written and e-mail) with Wesleyan University regarding his desire to write an article for the Alumni Magazine on the 1957 theft. It does not appear that the Alumni Magazine published the article, but there is a draft.

Box 1

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| Folder 1: Correspondence and e-mail with Wesleyan University | 2006 Dec – 2007 Apr |
| Folder 2: "The Famous 1957 Douglas Cannon Heist by Jack Goodhue, '57" | n.d. |
| Folder 3: "Wesleyan's Douglas Cannon to Return after 10 Years?" | 2007 Apr 2 |
| Folder 4: Printout of the online version of an exhibit mounted in Olin Library on the history of the Douglas Cannon | 2000 May – Sep |
| Folder 5: Scrapbook compiled by Jackson Goodhue | 1957-58 |
| Folder 6: Photocopies of the scrapbook (copy 1) | |
| Folder 7: Photocopies of the scrapbook (copy 2) | |
| Folder 8: Photograph: Miller, Goodhue, and Sorenson | |
| Folder 9: Photograph: Fred Millet, Professor of English, with Douglas Cannon | |