

Preliminary Inventory
Joseph William Hewitt Papers
Collection Number: 1000-259

Date: 1891-1938

Number of containers: 1 slim Hollinger box

Brief description of collection:

The Joseph William Hewitt Papers contains the writings of Joseph William Hewitt, a professor and Dean of Freshmen at Wesleyan University, largely about Ancient Greek translations and mythologies as well as Christianity.

The collection consists of a list of Joseph Hewitt's publications, a bulletin for a 1909 church service at Wesleyan University, reprinted articles and book reviews by Joseph Hewitt including multiple editions of The Classical Weekly, clippings, an written piece titled "The Bowdoin Faculty 1893-1897" with correspondence attached, a hand-written translation of Virgil's Aeneid by Joseph Hewitt, a script for a speech to alumni, drafts and a history of "Cannon" at Wesleyan (1922-38) prepared by Joseph Hewitt shortly before his death.

Katie Toner, Nov. 14, 2016