

Harold Brodhead Flagler Papers
Collection 2004-32
Preliminary Inventory

Papers of Harold Brodhead Flagler (1903-1957), Wesleyan class of 1926, primarily concerning his undergraduate years. Flagler was a member of the 1926 Glee Club when in March it won the National Intercollegiate Glee Club Championship at Carnegie Hall.

Included in this series are: Diaries (5 volumes) 1922-26, with content covering most of his time at Wesleyan, including clippings and photos; 1 annotated student handbook (1922-23); grade report cards (1923-26); WTIC (Hartford) radio response cards from listeners to 1925 syndicated Wesleyan broadcasts by the Glee Club and other Wesleyan groups; 1921 silver Exeter fob.

This collection was given to the Archives by Flagler's son, Philip Brodhead Flagler, Wesleyan class of 1954, and included some of his Wesleyan publications, listed below.

Items removed from the collection

To object case:

- Silver Wesleyan pocket knife, ca. 1920s
- Tiny pearl-encrusted "W" pin, ca. 1920
- Mother-of-pearl pocket knife with chain and attached Atwater Club, Glee Club, and Pre-Medical Club fobs belonging to Harold Flagler

To broadside case:

- Panoramic photo of the Wesleyan student body, 1922-23

To '92 Theater Collection:

- Annotated typescript of William Saroyan's Hello Out There, ca. 1951-54
- Annotated actor's edition of Sean O'Casey's Juno and the Paycock, ca. 1951-54

To Vertical Files and duplicates collections:

- Olla Podrida*, 1923, 1925-26, 1951-54
- Wesleyan Songbook*, 5th and 7th editions
- Songs of Beta Theta Pi*, 1949
- Single issues of the Argus, Cardinal, and Class of '26 printed ephemera