

Beyond Witness: Arabic, Queer Poetics, and Palestinian Resistance

Tuesday, February 3, 2026 | 4:30-6:30 PM | Fisk 121

This talk considers concepts from the Arabic language which offer expansive ways to theorize and practice resistance. It employs a combination of poetry, research, and prose to explore the discursive and material facets of Palestinian liberation, with special attention to forms of affective and embodied resistance.

MEJDULENE SHOMALI

Mejdulene Bernard Shomali is a queer Palestinian poet and associate professor in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at Williams College. She is the author of Between Banat: Queer Arab Critique and Transnational Arab Archives (Duke UP 2023) and the poetry chapbook agriculture of grief: prayers for my father's dementia (Finishing Line Press 2024).

Co-Sponsored by American Studies, Middle Eastern and North African Studies, and the Queer Studies Research Collective
