LOST CARDS? No problem. Just because you lose your card, doesn’t mean you lose the money in your account. Report a lost card immediately! Cancel it on the Web at wesleyan.edu/wescard or call Public Safety after business hours or during weekends and holidays at 860-685-2345. To obtain a new WesCard, visit the WesCard Office during business hours. The replacement fee for a lost or damaged card is $20, billed to your student account.
THE WESCARD

It’s your official identification card. It’s your access for everything—from checking out books at the library to accessing the Freeman Athletic Center to eating at the dining halls. It’s the way to pay for everything you need, on campus and off. It’s the WesCard, and when you’ve got it, you’ve got your passport to life at Wesleyan University. What other piece of plastic lets you do all this?

- Enter your residence hall and athletic facilities
- Access residence hall laundry machines
- Dine at campus dining venues
- Purchase textbooks and items at Wesleyan R J Julia Bookstore*
- Purchase items at WEShop
- Check out books at Olin Library
- Dine at participating Middletown restaurants
- Purchase items at participating Middletown merchants
- Purchase mailing supplies at Wesleyan Station
- Purchase computer supplies at Cardinal Tech*
- Purchase items from vending machines on campus
*Must tell cashier you are using Middletown Cash

It’s easy to see why the WesCard is your passport to life—it’s all you need to make it through a day at Wesleyan.

MIDDLETOWN CASH—THE WAY TO PAY

Your WesCard comes with a stored-value account called Middletown Cash. Middletown Cash is the convenient, cashless way to pay for your purchases on and off campus. To use it, simply deposit money into your Middletown Cash account and the balance will decline with each purchase you make.

Middletown Cash is accepted at Wesleyan R J Julia Bookstore and some of Middletown’s most popular off-campus businesses. So forget about carrying cash, checks, and credit cards—If you’ve got Middletown Cash, you’ve got the way to pay.

WESCARD FEATURES

The WesCard is all you need to make it through the day. It’s the cashless way to make purchases on and off campus and gets you access all over Wesleyan. There’s no need to carry cash, change, checks, or credit cards.

- It’s easy to use. It’s simple for you or your parents to deposit money into your account throughout the semester. Balances roll over each term or year until graduation.
- There are no fees associated with the Middletown Cash Program. However, unlike an ATM card, your funds are not available for cash withdrawal.
- Debt-free, worry-free, and hassle-free. Since your WesCard isn’t a credit card, you never have to worry about racking up debt or receiving surprise bills at the end of the semester.
- Know what you’re spending. Get up-to-date balance reports and your transaction history—available with a click of the mouse on wesleyan.edu/wescard.
- Your account is safe. WesCard lost or stolen? No problem! Suspend activity on your lost or stolen WesCard at wesleyan.edu/wescard under eAccounts, and you’ll be covered.
- Please visit our website at wesleyan.edu/wescard for complete information regarding your WesCard.
