

The Office of Residential Life and the Undergraduate Residential Life Committee (URLC) of the Wesleyan Student Assembly are taking proposals for new Program Houses to be offered in the Fall of 2027.

Proposals are due November 2nd at noon. Please email the following completed form to the Director of Residential Life, Liliana Carasquillo-Vasquez (lcarasquill@wesleyan.edu) and Area Coordinator Alyssa Lanphear (alanphear@wesleyan.edu). Proposals will be reviewed and voted on by the URLC. Submitters will be notified by Monday, November 23rd if their house was selected to be offered as a housing option next academic year.

Selected houses will be included in the Program Housing Application process as a part of housing selection in Spring 2027. It is expected that students listed on this proposal form apply to live in the house. New houses that do not receive enough applications to fill the house to 100% occupancy will have their proposals revoked.

At this time, the Office of Residential Life cannot confirm which properties will be available for new houses.

House Information

Proposed Name of House:
Mission Statement (50-100 words): Mission statements should describe the purpose and goal of the proposed house. Mission statements for current Program Houses can be found on the Residential Life website.
Why would this house be important to the Wesleyan community?

How would this house complement the mission statement of Residential Life?

What ideas for programming/events do you have for the house (for residents and for the larger Wesleyan community)?

How will you ensure that the house attracts a diverse population of the Wesleyan community?

How will you ensure that there will be long-term (multiyear) interest in the house?

What campus resources, departments/offices, or student organizations would this house be able to collaborate with?

House Advisor Information

House Advisors are faculty/staff members who volunteer to support the mission of the house. House Advisors may be invited to plan events for the house or attend events hosted by the House Manager/residents. Their role is to provide additional support, knowledge, and expertise to the House Manager and residents of the house.

Please provide the name and email address of a faculty/staff member who has agreed to serve as a House Advisor for this house.

Prospective House Advisors are also required to submit a brief form by October 30th to confirm their interest in serving in the House Advisor role for the proposed house. The form can be found here. Program House Proposals will not be considered complete until a prospective House Advisor has submitted this form.

Resident Commitment

Proposed Program Houses must have a commitment from 25 students who would be interested in living in the house. These students are expected to apply to live in the house during the Program Housing Application process in the spring. New houses that do not receive enough applications to fill the house to 100% occupancy will have their proposals revoked.

At the end of this form, there is a place to input the names and WesIDs of committed students. Proposals must have a minimum of 15 students interested in the house to be considered.

Additional Information

Please provide any additional information that you would like included in this proposal:

Final Acknowledgement

By typing your name down below, you acknowledge the following if your proposed Program House proposal is accepted:

- A House Manager will be selected for the house by the Office of Residential Life through the office's student staff selection process.
- A property for the house will be selected by the Office of Residential Life depending on availability and facility needs.
- The house will be evaluated by the Office of Residential Life and the URLC each semester and will be considered for discontinuation if it does not receive consistent satisfactory evaluations.
- All Wesleyan students have the right to apply to live in the house as part of the Program Housing Application process.
