UBMS Expectations for 2019-20 School Year

Expectations for Students

- Achieve academic excellence. Academics come first. We ask that you maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0/85, but that you aim higher.
- Attend after school tutoring at Wesleyan if you receive a grade below a C on a quarterly report card.
- Communicate with UBMS about your academic progress, participation and attendance to program events.
- Attend program events, including Saturday Sessions, college visits, etc.
- Maintain a positive attitude.
- Be a positive role model during the school day and in the community, and represent yourself, your family, your school and UBMS in a positive manner.
- Respect yourself as well as your family, peers, and teachers.
- Understand the consequences of your actions and your responsibilities.
- Demonstrate commitment and effort in everything you do.
- Be open-minded, ready to try new things, push yourself, and step out of your comfort zone.

Expectations for Parents

- Support academics first. Make sure all work is completed, and encourage positive study habits.
- Provide a structured environment for your student to get their work/studying done.
- Communicate and work with teachers and UBMS staff to hold your student accountable.
- Communicate any problems or concerns you may have regarding your child with UBMS staff.
- Encourage and push your student to seek extra help from their teachers or our tutors.
- Enforce commitment and responsibility.

What to expect from UBMS

- Respect for each student and parent.
- Provide opportunities for students to develop both academically and socially.
- Hold students accountable for their actions and attitude.
- Push each student towards their potential.
- Aid students in their pursuit of a college education.
- Be available to students and parents within reasonable and pre-arranged timeframes, and by phone and email.
