5. Entire Agreement: This lease, including any schedules attached hereto and any writings incorporated by reference or referred to herein, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and may be amended only by a written agreement between the parties.
6. Subletting and Assignment: Tenant shall not sublet the premises or any part thereof or assign this lease without the express written permission of Wesleyan. In no case, shall a tenant sublet his/her unit for more than a total of 12 months from the original move in date. A subletting or assignment will not release Tenant from liability under this lease. Tenant will be fiscally responsible for monthly rent payable to Wesleyan University by the 1st of the month by payroll deduction. Utilities will remain in the name of the Tenant. If the Tenant has a shortfall, the Tenant will pay balance by the 1st of the month. Tenant is responsible for receiving rent from the Sublease. Subletting or assignments will only be permitted to existing Wesleyan faculty and staff who are otherwise eligible for the rental housing benefit. However, visiting fellows who are faculty, graduate or post graduate students are eligible to sublet this premises for up to 1 year provided the Wesleyan Tenant named above continues to have full responsibility for the premises. Undergraduate students are not eligible to sublet this premises at any time. No exceptions will be permitted.
7. Enjoyment of Premises: Upon payment of the rent and performance of its obligations hereunder, Tenant is entitled to peaceful and quiet enjoyment of the premises during the term of this lease.

8. Inspection of Premises: Wesleyan, by its agents, employees and representatives, and/or by any contractor, real estate agent or other party authorized to represent it, may inspect and repair the premises at reasonable times; and may, after notice to Tenant, show the premises to others within six months before the term of this lease ends; and, in addition, when it has reasonable cause to believe that immediate entry is necessary to prevent substantial damage to the premises, may enter the premises immediately at such time and without advance notice to prevent such substantial damage.
9. Default: Rent as hereinabove described shall be payable without any demand being made by Wesleyan for the same. If said rent shall remain unpaid fifteen (15) days after the same becomes due or if the Tenant shall fail to do as herein agreed, or on breach of any covenant or stipulation herein contained, then the Tenant shall be in default and this lease shall become void at our option and we may send you notice and cancel this lease. The Tenant hereby expressly waives right to Notice of Default and to a Notice to Quit possession as prescribed by the statute relating to Summary Process. Wesleyan shall have the right, but not the obligation, to commence a summary process action against you by sending you a notice to quit or such other notice to vacate or demand for rent and/or damages as Wesleyan shall deem appropriate. Notwithstanding any other provision of this lease agreement to the contrary, Wesleyan shall have all rights and remedies against Tenant in the event of default including rights to resume possession and remove Tenant without liability for damage therefore as shall be permitted by the laws of the State of Connecticut then in effect. In the event of eviction prior to the end of the entire original lease term or any extension or renewal thereof, Wesleyan shall exercise its best reasonable efforts to relet the premises or any part thereof to another faculty or staff member satisfactory to Wesleyan and shall apply any monies received there from first to pay any expenses of Wesleyan in connection with said resumption of possession and reletting, and then to the payment of rent and the performance of Tenant's other obligations under this lease. Tenant agrees, whether or not Wesleyan has been able to relet the premises, to pay on demand the entire rent provided by this lease for the entire lease term, less the proceeds of any reletting as provided above.
10. Lien: Tenant does hereby create a lien in favor of Wesleyan on all of Tenant's goods, property, rights of action and effects of every description located on the premises and in any financial aid, wages, refunds, deposits or other sums or payments held by Wesleyan for or owed by Wesleyan to the Tenant; and Tenant does hereby agree that in the event of default as herein provided, the same shall stand liable and be charged for the payment of all rent and damages due by the terms of this lease, and may be held by Wesleyan and/or attached for that purpose, and, in particular, any and all sums held by Wesleyan for or owed by Wesleyan to the Tenant may be applied directly by Wesleyan to set-off, reduce and/or eliminate the sum owed Wesleyan by reason of eviction, non-payment of rent, and/or damage to the premises in violation of the terms of this lease.
11. Extensive Damages to Premises: If the premises become, for any reason, so damaged as to become uninhabitable, Wesleyan or Tenant may thereupon end the term of this lease by sending notice thereof to the other. If such damage results from the negligence or misconduct of the Tenant, then Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable expenses incurred by Wesleyan in repairing such damage, plus any and all rent which would have been payable by the Tenant during the period in which the premises are uninhabitable.
12. Condemnation of Right of Eminent Domain: In the event that the premises or any part thereof are to be or are taken for a public or quasi-public use by right of eminent domain, this lease shall terminate at the option of and on the date designated by Wesleyan, or at such time as occupancy is no longer possible or permitted. In any event, Tenant waives all claims against Wesleyan by reason of said complete or partial taking and Tenant has no rights in the proceeds of or award for such taking.
